FEEDING OUR NEIGHBORS

As part of our 2017 Centennial we are committed to doubling our impact by collecting 2 million meals. During the week of Sunday, January 29th – Sunday,

February 5th, Timothy Cardinal Dolan calls non-Catholics and Catholics alike to feed our neighbors by replenishing food pantries and soup kitchens that so many families rely on to survive.

“We need to feed the hungry in the name of Jesus, and that is a high honor and call. We need to make sure that none of our neighbors are ever turned away when they look to the church for help.”

~Timothy Cardinal Dolan

There is just one goal for Feeding Our Neighbors: to ensure that no hungry neighbor is turned away.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

Dear friends in the Lord:

Soon our archdiocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection. Our participation supports the charitable work of Pope Francis as he reaches out to those who are marginalized and suffering around the globe. By supporting this collection, you join the Holy Father in bringing a little more mercy into the world. Pope Francis called to us in his 2016 Urbi et Orbi address, “May efforts be made everywhere to promote the culture of encounter, justice and reciprocal respect, which alone can guarantee the spiritual and material welfare of all people.” We are taking up this collection to be part of the Church's effort to promote a culture of encounter and justice. Your support makes it possible for the Holy Father to carry out his charitable works around the world by assisting those who suffer from war, natural disasters, and other difficult situations.

Let us join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis reach the marginalized in our world. Please prayerfully consider how you can best support the Peter's Pence Collection this year, as you have done in the past with my gratitude. For more information about the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Thank you, and may the Lord bless you abundantly.

With prayerful best wishes, I am, Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

FAITH DISCUSSION GROUP

Fr. Kearney will be taking a vacation from Feb. 1st to Feb. 10th, and Mary & I are going to be away the following week. This leaves only one Friday free before the start of Lent on March 1st. Current plans for the Fridays of Lent is to have noon Stations of the Cross, Mass, and soup and salad for all, utilizing the hall as we did last year. The next gathering will begin on Friday, March 3rd.

There will not be any meetings during February.

~ Deacon Karl

FUEL FUND UPDATE

There has been much confusion with tickets and payments, and for that we apologize. It is our understanding that some tickets still have not been received. You do not need the physical ticket in hand. If you have joined, you have been assigned a number which remains yours until such time that you no longer wish to participate. If you have not yet sent in your $100 payment, please do so as soon as possible. The dinner is scheduled for March 26th. All payments must be received prior to the dinner.

Tickets will no longer be issued for future clubs. Members will receive a sheet at the dinner with information regarding the upcoming Fuel Fund. Anyone who does not attend the dinner will have the information mailed directly to them.

The parish truly appreciates the support of the Fuel Fund members! We hope to expand each Fuel Fund Club with new members. Please look for information about becoming a member in upcoming bulletins.
